GREEN DECOR

MAKING BETTER LIVING

PRAKASHODAY
FOUNDATION

तमसो मा ज्योतिर्गमय ॥

We believe In Green Earth which is why we promote plants and encourage people to start using plants as interior decoration or as a medium of gifts. Plants always act as medium of stressbuster and make the environment attractive and welcoming.

They also make design statements.

A well-maintained plants with well-designed displays enhance the appearance of a building improving the psychological and physical well-being of its occupants.

Green decore, is an issue that a lot of people concern. It is our contribution as designers to reduce the damage to our environment. The idea of green decoration is devoted to the selection of items that do not cause damage to our environment.
